

Iceland

Areas of interest and skill set

It is important to know what type of job you are looking for, in order to narrow your search. Many companies have websites to help you see what is available.

Acquiring information on jobs

There are some websites that can help you to find a job alfred.is and <https://vinnumalastofnun.is/> are some of them and you can also send a company that you want to work for an email and see if they answer.

CV and cover letter

When you apply for a job you need to send your CV. CV must contain a record of your education, extra-curricular activities, work experience and interests, it also needs to have your personal details and a photo of you.

Correspondence and interviews

You can be called in for an interview if the company is interested in you. They will call you or send you an email.

Further Information

If you would like to find more about the process of finding a job in Iceland, you may find more information on the following websites:

<https://vinnumalastofnun.is/en>

<https://www.asi.is/english/>

<https://www.government.is/publications/legislation/>

Erasmus+