

Slovenia

Areas of interest and skill set:

There are a lot of different jobs so you have to decide what is it that you are good at doing and what you like doing. If you are not sure, there are a lot of places that can help you find out what you need to know.

Acquiring information on jobs

There are a lot of websites you can look at, but the most commonly used is Career Centre. They can help you to decide your career path.

CV and cover letter

A CV has to contain your personal information, your education, any training or studying abroad, jobs you worked before, hobbies, special skills important detail that would get you a job.

Correspondence and interviews

If a company is interested in you they will email or call you to set an interview where they ask about your CV. They also give you an example of a problem and how you would you resolve it.

